LIVING TRUST SEMINARS

The Adventures (or Should I Say Misadventures?) of Boating with Dad

by Attorney Philip J. Kavesh

This story is a bit late for Father's Day, but I've decided to share it with you anyway.

For many years, as I grew up, I loved going boating with my Dad. These were special times when I often got to enjoy his company all by myself (particularly before my three younger brothers started to tag along!).

For those who don't yet have a Trust, but also those who have one and may need to review and update it! Both the public and our existing clients are invited - - and please bring your family or friends!

NOTE: All of our seminars listed below are now being held in-person. If you, or someone you know, would like to attend a seminar, but cannot attend a live one, please send us an e-mail so we can explore other options.

(Also note: We may provide services to anyone residing in California without them having to travel to our offices.)

We Discovered The River Wild

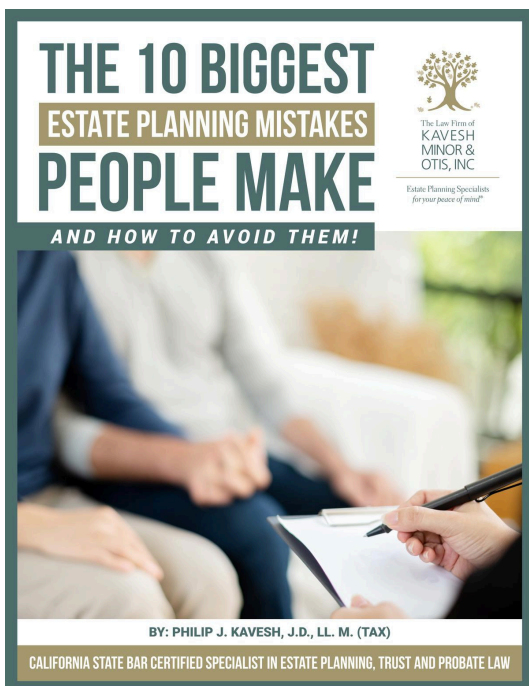

Dad's first boat was a light, fiberglass, 16-footer - - wildly overpowered with a 200 horsepower outboard engine! That was a big fishing advantage, because if Dad took off early from work at 3:00 in the afternoon we could race out to our favorite fishing spot, still get in a few hours and return before dark. Another advantage of that boat was its "walk-around" feature. The captain's seat and wheel didn't block the front (or "bow"). You could step around the edge of the entire boat and fish from anywhere, depending on what direction the current pulled your "line" and "sinker" or the fish swam away with your hook!

Our docking space (or "slip") was at the end of a small pier protruding out into the Maurice River (pronounced "Morris" by the South Jersey locals). Little did we realize at first that, as my Dad liked to quote from some famous poem, "Time and tide wait for no man." We soon learned (the hard way) about the importance of knowing the timing of the river's tide changes.

One afternoon, we traveled upriver, fished there for a while, and planned to race back to the dock. We didn't notice that, behind us, the river had receded. So, when we turned around and "floored the gas", we literally became grounded on an invisible sandbar, just under the water's surface. Dad then got the not-so-great idea of leaping out of the boat to push us off. Suddenly, he started to sink in the mud, which was like quicksand! Horrified and panicked, I extended out a fishing pole so he could hopefully grab it. I hadn't quite thought this through, as I was much smaller than Dad (and the pole was only designed to hold small fish). Somehow, miraculously, I was able to pull him back onto the boat (Thank Goodness!). The first thing he said was, "Don't ever tell your Mother about this!"

So, we got a little smarter and we started consulting the tide charts before we left the dock. Yet, another

After working so hard to provide for your family, it would be a tragedy if you were unable to pass on the fruits of your labor after your passing. Unfortunately, there are plenty of mistakes that can reduce the amount of an estate and threaten your family's future. These simple errors happen far too often, usually because people do not have accurate estate planning information.

You Can Avoid Common Estate Planning Mistakes

When you download your free copy of our book entitled, "The 10 Biggest Estate Planning Mistakes People Make", you will learn the biggest misconceptions and myths that can have a devastating effect on your relatives and property, as well as the actions you should take NOW to avoid future heartache.

river challenge soon presented itself. You see, we loved to milk every moment of fishing opportunity out of the day. We would fish until the first few moments of dusk and then dash back to the dock just before complete darkness and navigation blackout (we only had a large handheld flashlight!). What we didn't realize was...

The Best Dating Apps for Seniors

Who is to say that you're "too old" or it's "too late" to begin dating again and finding love as a senior? Everyone deserves to experience the love and companionship that comes from finding that special someone. The problem may lie in finding the right person and how.

4th of July Holiday

In observance of Independence Day, our office will be closed on Thursday, July 4th. Our office will reopen for business on Friday, July 5th. Wishing you and yours a safe, relaxing, and "cool" holiday weekend! 😊

Thirty years ago, the idea of meeting a stranger online might have sounded a little wild and dangerous. However, with so many people now with smartphones and connected on the internet, meeting people online is far from uncommon.

The question is, where do you find these people? According to Forbes, these are some of the best dating apps out there for seniors.

Have you tried any of them? Have you ever dated (or married) someone you met online?

Happy 20th Anniversary, Kristina!

Kristina Schneider, Phil Kavesh's former Executive Assistant and currently working for the law firm's sister company, The Ultimate Estate Planner, Inc., celebrates 20 years with us. Kristina started working at Kavesh, Minor & Otis shortly after graduating from Pepperdine University. You may have seen Kristina at one of our seminars. She has helped the law firm with its seminars, e-mail newsletters, and supporting Mr. Kavesh. Currently, she is a Practice Success Coach, teaching other estate planning attorneys and their staff how to run a more successful estate planning practice using the model developed by Kavesh, Minor & Otis over its 43 years of experience. Happy Anniversary, Kristina!

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

"My in-laws had their Living Trust and Will done at Kavesh, Minor & Otis (KMO) with Peter Keon as their attorney back in 2004. After my father-in-law passed away in 2013, we met

"Jane Lee helped execute my late father's trust and transfer all its assets into my own trust. She was understanding of all the questions I had along the way, including with Peter. He was extremely helpful in taking care of all the things that needed to be done. He was very thorough, and we never felt rushed during our time with him. I referred my friend and her husband to KMO when they were looking to have a Living Trust created. Over the years we've received emails inviting us to a Living Trust seminar. It's totally free, at a great location, and ours included a full breakfast. Phil Kavesh gave a great presentation! He took time to answer questions and we left with some very informative materials. After the seminar we decided it was time to make an appointment to have our Living Trust and Will (created by another firm in 1990) reviewed. We requested Peter as our attorney because of the positive experiences we've had through my in-laws. He is very professional and also very knowledgeable about the current laws and answered all of our questions. We are very pleased with the services offered by KMO and would recommend them to others."

Thank you for these wonderful client reviews, Denise and Jennifer (both real clients)!

We know that our clients and all the members of our community have many options to choose from when it comes to assisting with their estate planning needs. It is very gratifying to us that people put their trust in us to help them with these important decisions that will impact them and their loved ones for years to come.

Many of our clients have asked how they can support us in return and they have done so by not only referring their friends and family (for example by forwarding this e-mail newsletter), but also by taking the time to leave us an online review (which we'd really appreciate, if you haven't done so already). Below are a couple of websites you can choose from to leave a quick online review of your experience with our firm.

Thank you, in advance, for your help! We look forward to continuing to serve you and your loved ones for many more years to come!
