

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

November 6 & 7, 2025 | Nashville, Tennessee

QUESTION: Is The Ultimate Level the right fit for me and my practice?

ANSWER: The event is suitable for attorneys and practices of all levels. Phil Kavesh's law firm, upon which our presentation is based, has been in business for over 44 years and has been through all the stages of building a super-successful estate planning practice.

- If you're just starting out as an estate planner or have a young practice, we will show you how to jump immediately to a fifth year (or greater) level of business experience and profits, without having to go through all of the expense, headaches and stress of "trial and error" on your own.
- If you already have an established and growing practice, we will show you exactly what you'll need to do to just "tweak" it and quantum leap you to the next level more quickly and without all the growing pains.
- If you have a mature practice with lots of clients (and maybe lots of marketplace competition) and perhaps you're considering phasing down or an exit strategy, we will show you how to utilize the "gold in your vault" to boost your firm's profits, build up the value of your firm, and obtain a bigger exit price when you want to retire!

★ Also, no matter whether your practice is located in a rural or urban area, you'll still see a dramatic increase in your firm efficiency, revenue and profits!

QUESTION: How difficult are your techniques to implement? Will I be able to duplicate them?

ANSWER: Hundreds of attorneys who have attended prior Ultimate Level events have already successfully implemented our techniques and strategies, so you can too! The key is we will help you create your own definite, step-by-step implementation plan before the conclusion of the event. We also offer ongoing implementation coaching which many have found helpful to hold them accountable and attain maximum results when they return to the office!

QUESTION: Will I have to spend a bunch of money on additional products or marketing materials after the event in order to see results?

ANSWER: No. You will walk away with several practical strategies and tools to be able to implement into your practice right away to see results. Additionally, our seminar marketing techniques will be discussed in the context of your overall customer service journey and making that process more efficient and productive for your firm, so you can jump start your implementation and results by simply shifting your current intake process for prospective clients, but also you can increase your number of leads simply by marketing to your existing clients and professional referral sources, as well.

We will show you in detail at the program how when you smartly invest in marketing your practice, the greater will be your return! It's not the cost of marketing that counts, it's the return on your investment! All of the marketing we'll teach you has been tested and proven to get results!

QUESTION: I'm more interested in reducing my work time and improving my quality of life than I am in increasing my revenue production. Is this Ultimate Level event right for me?

ANSWER: Absolutely! The strategies and techniques that you will learn have allowed attorney Phil Kavesh to reduce his work time at his law firm to *only one day a month! And his out of office work time to less than 10 hours per week! Even more miraculously, since he has reduced his time in the office, his firm's revenue production and profitability have actually gone up! Why? Because Phil has systematized every element of the practice so that it can work for him instead of the other way around. It's also now allowed for him to focus on the tasks that he loves and enjoys doing (marketing!), which helps align him with what the firm needs him from him, while the rest of his law firm team carry out the day-to-day operations.

★ If you want to create a passive income generator and be able to take more time off (or just reduce the stress and your time in the office), The Ultimate level is *definitely for you!
